Residence Hall Room Descriptions

The Hill - Redwood and Sunset Halls, known as “The Hill,” are traditional residence halls. Each building is three stories and L-shaped around a central quad. There are 225 students in primarily double rooms with a limited number of quad, triple, and single rooms. Each wing houses approximately 40 students per floor. On the first floor, each wing is single gender. On the second and third floors, men and women are assigned rooms next to each other. Bathrooms are not co-ed. Each room is furnished with a bed, dresser, desk and closet for each resident. Every student in Redwood and Sunset has the ability to access the internet through both wired and wireless connections. The rooms are also wired for optional telephone service and cable TV service.

Dimensions are approximate, and may vary by each room.

Each floor has a TV/study lounge. The first floor of both buildings have a kitchen, laundry, and storage facility, along with vending machines and ping pong tables. Custodial services clean the hallways, bathrooms, and lounges.

Canyon - The Canyon consists of eight separate buildings: Alder, Cedar, Chinquapin, Hemlock, Madrone, Maple, Pepperwood, and Tan Oak Halls. Each building has three levels and is home to fifty students. Each building has a kitchen, storage area, laundry room, and a TV/study lounge.

In each building, there are either two floors of men and one of women, or vice-versa. All rooms are furnished with a bed, dresser, desk, and closet for each resident. Every student in the Canyon has the ability to access the internet through both wired and wireless connections. The rooms are wired for optional telephone service and cable TV service. Canyon halls have singles, doubles, triples, and 4-person suites. A 4-person suite consists of two bedrooms joined by a common living room. Each suite bedroom has bunk beds for two students. Those living in suites share a bedroom with one other person and a living room with three others. Custodial services clean the hallways, bathrooms, and lounges.

Dimensions are approximate, and may vary by each room.

Cypress - Cypress Hall is a series of suites built up the slope of a hillside that houses approximately 230 students. A suite houses seven to twelve students and is single gender unless it is a co-ed Theme Housing area. Each suite has a living room, bathroom, and a small kitchen area with cooking facilities and a dining table. Some suites have either a balcony or patio off the living room. Laundry facilities are on the ground floor of the Cypress complex and in some suites. A basketball hoop, barbecue, lawn, and recreation area are located on the grounds adjacent to Cypress.

The suites consist of double and single rooms. All rooms are furnished with a bed, desk, and wardrobe closet for each resident. Every resident has the ability to access the internet through wired or wireless connections. The rooms are wired for optional telephone service and cable TV service. Residents in each suite are responsible for the cleaning of the common area kitchen, living room and hallway. Custodial services are provided for the bathrooms on a weekly basis.
